Please note the export process would take a minute or so

Step Four - Embedding and Themes

You should be able to see your games page looks something like this

Now you can create a new Games page in your website and embed the following code:

<iframe src="Your URL" width="100%" height="800" frameBorder="0"></iframe>

The "Your URL" looks something like this https://springboardvr.vrcorner.com.au/users/91/games. Please note "Your URL" would be the unique URL that you got redirected to after the export. And currently there's two themes available Black and White, White is the default and black is the custom one.
